A PYTHIAN BUILDING

Ivy Lodge No. 27 May Erect a $28,000 Structure if Possible.

Magnificent Three Story Building May Rise at Morgan and Second Streets.

Signs are favorable for the erection of a new Pythian building in this city soon. Ivy lodge, Knights of Pythias at its meeting last night took steps toward that end and it is highly probable that a new structure will rise upon the site of the present building, at the corner of Morgan and Second streets.

A committee consisting of John H. Kiplinger, J. K. Jamison and others of the lodge, appointed at a recent meeting to consult the trustees of the lodge, Messrs Bert Reeve, J. K. Jamison and F. M. Redman, regarding the erection of a new building made its report last night at the regular meeting of the lodge. The report of the committee was received and the committee was discharged.

The committee recommended that a three story building, to cover the entire lot upon which the present building stands, be erected, the first floor to be divided into business rooms and the second into office rooms. The third floor it recommended should be admirably fitted up for the use of the lodge. Should a new building be erected to cover the entire lot, the structure would have a floor space of about one hundred feet square.

After considerable discussion it was agreed at the meeting last night, that if a building should be built, it will be erected by a stock company composed of Knights of Pythias, and not by Ivy lodge as a whole. This is similar to the plan adopted by the Masons when they erected their new temple.

As a result of the discussion a committee, consisting of Samuel Trabue, E. W. Ball, John H. Kiplinger, C. P. Hunt and Albert Miller, was appointed to solicit stock. Stock in the proposed company will be sold at the rate of $30 per share. An effort will be made to sell eight hundred shares. This will insure $24,000. The remainder of the funds necessary will be secured by mortgaging the building. If the plans of the lodge do not miscarry it is the intention to build a structure costing $28,000.

ABLE INSTRUCTORS WILL BE PRESENT

Pennsylvania State Superintendent to Appear at Teachers Institute.

The annual institute of the Rush County Teachers' Association will be held in connection with the Chautauqua again this year. The institute will open August 13 and will close on the 17th. The session will be held in the Chautauqua tent.

Two very able instructors have been engaged and the teachers are promised something in their discussions of educational work. Dr. N. P. Schaefer, superintendent of the schools of the State of Pennsylvania has been engaged as one of the instructors and L. D. Kaufman, superintendent of the Connersville city schools, is the other. Dr. Schaefer has been superintendent of the Pennsylvania schools for many years and is one of the foremost educators in the East. Mr. Kaufman's splendid ability and reputation are well known in Rushville. Other men will also give some helpful talks during the institute.

BUSINESS IS BRISK IN BUILDING LINE

All Trades are Busy and Likely to Remain so Until Winter.

Rental property continues scarce, and with the many new houses going up, this spring, that Rushville is enjoying a healthy growth goes with out saying.

Several of the houses being built, this year, are owned by mechanics and other wage or salary earners who have heretofore been renters, but who have been saving their money during these prosperous times and are seeking the luxury of a home of their own.

Carpenters are in brick demands, and are all other members of the building trades. The building season began early this year and promises to last till cold weather.

New houses are going up in every part of town and when work is begun on the new school buildings, it is probable that a large number of workmen will be imported. The brick and stone masons are busy and the plasterers, painters, tanners and gas fitters have all they can do. Many new houses are also being built in various parts of the country.

The little boy who retained four cents out of the five that his father had given him to throw in the contribution basket at church, and excused himself on the grounds that the Lord loved a cheerful giver, and that he could give one penny more cheerful than five, may have relatives in Rushville. The new Improvement Association is at least having experiences with some of those kind of givers. Some of the refusals have been very discouraging to the solicitors and to our city's future prospects.

JOHN C. NEW PASSES AWAY

One of Indiana's Most Prominent Citizens is Dead.

Probably Had More to do With Making Gen. Harrison President Than Any Other Man.

Indianapolis, June 5.—Colonel John C. New, one of the "grand old men" of the Republican party in Indiana, died here late Monday afternoon at his home on North Pennsylvania street after an illness of nearly a year. He was a victim of liver trouble, which finally resulted in dropsy. Colonel New was seventy-five years of age and the last of a galaxy of great men that were closely identified with the growth of Indiana during the last half century. At the death were Captain Harry S. New, his son, who is vice chairman of the Republican national committee; his wife, and daughter, Mrs. Ernest Burford of this city. Mrs. W. R. McKeen, his other daughter, did not arrive before his death. His family knew that he was falling rapidly, but a week ago Captain New was planning to take him to their summer home at Charlevoix, Mich. His death was a great shock to his many friends, who had not expected it so soon.

Colonel New was active in politics from the time he became a voter until the defeat of General Harrison for president in 1892. He attained his greatest prominence in connection with the Harrison campaigns. He probably had more to do with making General Harrison president than any other man. He launched his boom and kept it alive until he was nominated. At the start of General Harrison's second campaign he told him frankly that he could be nominated but not elected. Colonel New retired with President Harrison and had not participated in public affairs here for several years.

AN IMPORTANT RULING

Court Holds That Insurance Fees Belong to the State.

Lebanon, Ind., June 5.—Judge S. R. Artman in a decision in the case of the state against A. C. Daily, who as auditor of state, was charged with retaining certain fees to which he was not entitled, found for the state on every proposition raised by Mr. Daily in the third paragraph of his answer to the complaint.

The defendant contended that he retained 10 per cent fees on foreign insurance tax collection as a part of legitimate emoluments of his office, and as compensation for services rendered by him in the performance of his official duties; that the letter of statute authorized the payment of such foreign insurance taxes to him as auditor and authorized the receipt of the same as such auditor by him; that if the letter of the statute did not make such foreign insurance taxes payable to him as auditor, yet by reason of departmental interpretation, from the date of the enactment of such statute until Jan. 1, 1906, it has become the settled law of the state that such foreign insurance taxes were payable to the auditor.

The court holds that the statute does not authorize the auditor to collect the foreign insurance taxes and that the act of 1891 did not fix the fee of 10 per cent for his services in collecting these taxes. The court further holds that the statute involved does not present a case for departmental construction; that the statute is plain, clear and unambiguous; that it does not need an interpretation and that it clearly specifies that such monies must be paid into the state treasury.

The decision covers fourteen typewritten pages. The amount of fees, together with interest and penalties, which is claimed Mr. Daily owes the state is over $30,000.

He Gave Himself Up.

Mt. Vernon, Ind., June 5.—While a dance was in progress in Point township, Posey county, Walter Ginger, nineteen years old, shot Fred Dunn, twenty-five years old, in the head, inflicting a bad wound. There was a quarrel, in which Dunn advanced on Ginger with a club. The shooting followed. Ginger claims to have acted in self-defense, and he immediately surrendered to the authorities.

KIRK MCKINNEY IS ACCIDENTLY KILLED

Former Union Township Man Thrown From Street Car at Knoxville, Tenn.

Emmett Clifton has received word that Kirk McKinney, who formerly resided in Union township and was employed by Morton Gray and John Markland, was killed recently in Knoxville, Tenn., where he held a position as street car conductor. McKinney was thrown violently from his car as it rounded a sharp curve and was instantly killed. He was about twenty-five years of age and had been married but a short time.

SUMMER WORK? BOYS QUESTION

Many Young Men Being Turned Loose in Rushville at Present.

Each Summer the Many School Boys of this City Hunt For Work

What to do this summer is the main question that now confronts many boys in Rushville, boys between the ages of twelve and twenty who are out of school with three months of vacation from school work before them. For the majority of these boys, a good job would look better now than anything in the world and merchants and shop foremen are having many applications every day for "something to do."

Rushville does not afford the opportunities that there are in a big city for a boy to find work. There are not many factories here that employ boys in the summer and all other lines of business are more or less dull during June, July and August, but most every boy finds something to do, and it is a hard week for men who have possible positions to be filled, as soon as school closes.

Boys' tastes differ greatly and they always make for the place where they would like to work, first. Many like to be in a store, clerking, others, younger boys, do not mind driving delivery wagons and in fact, this work is much sought after. Others work in the foundry and others will play "janitor" or some establishment or a weekly pocketful of spending money.

Most boys, however, whose fathers are in a position to give them something to do, work for the head of the family. Others want to be independent and strike out for themselves. Anything goes, because there is always a lot going on in the summer, and money must be earned before it is spent, according to boy philosophy.

Some boys go to the country and work on farms. These are not many, however, as farming is too tame, unless they have to do it. Driving a wagon at three dollars per week looks better than a dollar a day and board if the latter is outside town. Most school boys do not make large wages, but usually enough so that they can feel a little independent at circus time and when there is a base ball game.

The traction line is proving a God send to the school boys who are hunting work. Several high schools went to work on the traction line Monday and more will begin work tomorrow. The older boys act as time keepers and similar officials while the younger boys carry water for the laborers.

Rushville college students are returning home and they are looking for places. Several of the college students will take positions at the car barns or the power house.

A Japanese scientist suggests that the radio-activity of air may be due the escape of emanations from subterranean regions. He proposes that the smoke from volcanoes be examined to see whether this theory be correct.

STORY WAS OF GROWING KIND

Race Riot Over the Mexican Border Much Exaggerated.

Mexican Government Will Not Protest Against Armed Invasion by Americans.

El Paso, Tex., June 5.—Francisco Mallen, Mexican consul at El Paso, has given the following statement to the press: "Only seven Mexicans and two Americans were killed at Cananea. The Mexican officials are now in absolute control, and so quiet is the situation that Governor Ysabel has returned to Hermosillo, leaving General Torres and Colonel Kesterlitzsky in command.

"The Mexican government will not censure Governor Ysabel for taking armed Americans to Cananea, as they were not American troops and it was a time for action. Men were needed in Cananea to restore peace and the Americans volunteered. Governor Ysabel accepted them pending the arrival of the Mexican troops. The trouble at Naco between Americans and the Mexican officers Friday night was simply a mistake of somebody and is deplorable, but I am satisfied that it is ended. There was no organized attempt as I understand, of armed men to force themselves into Mexico. I think the incident is closed."

The troops sent from Chihuahua last Saturday are still camped in Ciudad Juarez, opposite El Paso, and it is said they will not go to Cananea, although having permission to pass through the United States.

General McCaskey, commanding the department of Texas, will reach here today from San Antonio, but it is said that his trip is merely for inspection.

APPLICATION IS WITHDRAWN

Remonstrance Filed Against Denny Ryan's Application For Liquor License.

Denny Ryan, who applied to the county commissioners yesterday for liquor license has withdrawn his application owing to a remonstrance filed against it by a number of citizens. The remonstrance was signed by T. M. Green, Rev. W. W. Sniff, John A. Tittsworth, Rev. V. W. Tevis, David Graham, B. F. Miller, D. M. Kinney, Paul Kerr and A. C. Brown.

The remonstrance alleges that Mr. Ryan has not conducted his saloon according to law, that he has violated the liquor laws as many as fifteen times, that he has permitted gambling in his saloon and has employed men who have no regard for the law.

KELSO VERDICT WAS A COMPROMISE VERDICT

The Connersville News says concerning the verdict for $1,000, given the plaintiff in the Kelso-Kelso case for alienation of affections: "On the first ballot there were eleven votes for a judgment to one opposed. On the second ballot this one came over, making the jury unanimous for a judgment."

"There was, however, much difference as to the amount that should be allowed, a sum as low as $400 having been mentioned, while others thought the plaintiff ought to have at least one-third of the amount she sued for, $5,000. Finally, after several ballots had been taken, a compromise was reached at $1,000.

In twelve marriages out of every 100 one of the parties has been married before.

BALL TEAM TO PLAY AWAY FROM HOME

The Local Aggregation Being Strengthened—Effort to Get McCord.

The Rushville base ball team has quite a schedule of Sunday games ahead and will "go abroad" to play some of them. Next Sunday the team plays at Shelbyville and on the following Sunday it plays at Martinsville. August 9th it goes to Hartford City. For the following Sunday a game has been scheduled for Glenwood Park, New Albany.

The Dayton Central League team is after Catcher Schultz and it is possible that Rushville may lose him.

An effort is being made to get Pitchers McCord and Connaughton who pitched for Rushville last year and if these men are secured Rushville will have one of the strongest team that she has had for years. The team will line up as follows next Sunday when it meets Shelbyville:—McCord, Connaughton or Yazel, p; Schultz or O'Neal c; Pearsey, lb; Dillon, 2b; Stiers, ss; Hendrix, 3b; Combs, lf; Yazel, cf; O'Neal, rf; Geraghty, Demmer and Casady subs.

ARLINGTON MAN BECOMES INSANE

Levin Thompson Imagines that He is Rewriting the Bible.

Levin J. B. Thompson, aged sixty-five years, and a resident of Arlington was held to be of unsound mind at an inquest in Squire Ball's court at that place last Saturday and is now awaiting commitment to an insane hospital. Doctors Schauk and Smith, of Arlington, were the examining physicians.

Thompson owns a piece of property in Arlington, that is covered by mortgage, and has been living alone. Signs of his insanity were first noticed eighteen months ago. The man labors under the hallucination that all the houses in Arlington are on fire and that he is rewriting the bible. For some time last week he spent his time running back and forth between his home and the postoffice. He tore up part of the floor in his house and took down part of the chimney. At times he is morose and then again he becomes hysterical. He is very talkative at times but cannot talk long on the same subject. Thompson was born in Kentucky. Religion is said to be the cause of his insanity.

RECEIVER TAKES CHARGE OF STORE

Out Come of Suit Filed Against Omer Wiley of Falmouth.

As the result of a suit filed by Watson, Tittsworth and Green, attorneys for Edward Schlichte, of Connersville, against Omer W. Wiley, a merchant of Falmouth, on a note and to foreclose a mortgage, T. H. Martin, who has been appointed receiver by the court, took charge of the store and the stock of goods. Mr. Martin's bond has been filed in the sum of $2,000. Schlichte demands about $2,200. He formerly resided at Falmouth and sold the store to Wiley.

William Harden was arrested yesterday afternoon charged with kicking his wife and when he was arraigned before Squire Jackson the affidavit was found to be defective. Harden was released until this morning when another affidavit was drawn up. Policeman Price has been unable to find Harden today.

ARE THOUGHT TO HAVE COME HERE

Two Negroes Who Did the Shooting at Williams Creek Escaped.

Attempted to Hold Up Four Other Traction Grade Employees.

Monday's Connersville Examiner has the following to say concerning the shooting at Big William's Creek mentioned in yesterday's Republican: Two negroes who had been employed but about a week on the traction line at the Williams creek camp, made a bold attempt to hold up and rob four other colored men in one of the tents yesterday morning and in a skirmish that followed, one man was shot. The names of [the] two negroes who made the holdup could not be learned as they escaped from the camp after securing forty five cents and shooting one of the men.

Sheriff Jeffrey received a telephone call shortly after the hold up, to come out to the camp. Deputy Sheriff Dan Jeffrey and Officer Gray immediately started out to the camp but were unable to find the two desperadoes when they arrived there. The two negroes had started out through the woods toward Rushville and although an effort was made to locate them the officers were not successful.

As told by one of the colored men who was in the tent where the attempt at hold up was made, the two negroes came in upon them, each with a revolver in his hand and commanding them to hand over their money. One of the men forked over forty-five cents which was all he had, and as they turned their guns upon the other three men, one in the crowd started to run. As he darted out of the tent two shots were fired after him, one of them taking effect in his left arm. The two desperadoes then started out of the camp as fast as they could run. The colored man who was shot in the arm suffered quite a bad bullet wound but it is thought not to be serious. He went to Glenwood afterwards and a physician there dressed his wound.

HEAVY RAIN STORM TODAY

The Sky Looked Very Threatening—Little Damage Done.

Following close on the heel of the gentle drizzle of last night a heavy rain fell about 11 o'clock this morning flooding the gutters throughout the city and soaking things generally. The rain was accompanied by considerable wind which blew limbs from trees in various parts of the city. However little damage was done as the clouds were higher up than upon similar occasions. The storm was general over the county. In some places the oats and wheat are down but beyond some injury to garden truck little damage was done. The sky appeared to have a greenish cast to it just before the storm came up and for a time it appeared as though there would be a cyclone.

FUNERAL OF MARTHA MORRISON HELD TODAY

A number of Rushville's young people went to Shelbyville today to attend the funeral of Miss Martha Morrison of that city, well known here, who died at Denver, Col., Friday evening where she underwent an operation at St. Luke's hospital for cancer. Miss Morrison left Shelbyville three years ago and had been employed as nurse at the Denver hospital.

According to the latest Washington news, Mr. James E. Watson is a strong possibility as speaker of the house of representatives. Among those who are favorably mentioned for this honor Mr. Watson seems to have the best chance, standing very close to the present speaker Joe Cannon, and besides being well fitted for the place. Mr. Watson is making a record in Washington, and he is bound to come to the front, and his constituents in the Sixth District, and particularly his fellow citizens in Rushville and Rush county are justly proud of him.

In his campaign speeches Bryan scolded and shook his finger because United States troops were stationed near our great cities. Bombastically he declared that he would do away with that nonsense. And if he had his way those soldiers who were at hand and who prevented looting, and pillaging, and suffering, and saved life at San Francisco during the recent disaster, could not have been called on. Thus again does time prove that Bryan's theories which sound so convincing to the unthinking are lacking in practical application.

As an evidence of the splendid business and financial management of the Republican State officials, it is pointed out that the legislature of 1905 made the following specific appropriations out of the general fund, without adding one mill to the taxes (except the six mills for school revenue): Southeastern hospital for insane, $560,000; epileptic village, $150,000; industrial school for girls, $150,000; deaf and dumb institute, $150,000. Here is a total of $1,010,000 appropriated for new State buildings and available in the years 1905 and 1906, with no increase in taxation. Compared with the manner past Democratic administrations squandered the public funds, it really looks as though a republican administration could almost have built the State house without a special levy.

FOLLOWING GOOD EXAMPLE

Democrats May Adopt Code Along Lines of Republican Committee.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 5.—Although the Holtzman League for the Recovery of Majority Rule seems to have passed away, there will be an effort on the part of the Democratic state committee to amend the rules governing the party so that "snap" primaries and conventions will be impossible. S. Paul Poynter of Sullivan, who was a member of the majority league rule, has framed a new code which provides that all delegates shall be elected by township or ward mass conventions or primaries for which due notice must be given in the newspapers. His rules provide for the holding of district conventions some time between the second Monday of January and the first Monday of April and for the meeting of the state committee to reorganize within twenty days following the election of the last district chairman. Poynter's rules are along the same lines as the Republicans have, except that the state committee does not fix the day for the selection of delegates for the district conventions. A rule governing settlement of controversies says that each precinct, ward, township or county should settle its controversies if possible. All appeals from precincts, wards or townships shall be heard first by the county or city organizations and afterward may be reviewed by the state committee. It is said that Poynter will try to have the rules adopted by the resolutions committee before they are presented to the convention.

There are only a few early arrivals are comparatively few early arrivals for the Democratic state convention. The situation is as lamblake as though there were to be a meeting of a church society instead of a gathering of Democratic politicians to name a ticket and adopt a platform. James Kirby Risk of Lafayette, Tenth district chairman, is one of the important arrivals. Risk promised some time ago to come to Indianapolis during the convention and nominate Mayor Geo. R. Duran of Lafayette for secretary of state. Duran backed, however, and Risk is without a candidate for this session. He declared that Duran will be a candidate for governor in 1908. Risk was regarded as one of the staunch anti-Taggart men. When asked what he thought the platform should say, he quoted the commandment, "Thou shalt not steal." That may be the keynote of the platform, although the quotation will not be used. Risk and other leaders say that the grafting that has been going on in public office in Indiana should be vigorously condemned, and it will be. There is very little talk as yet as to what the platform shall contain, but there will be a meeting this evening at which it will be pretty thoroughly outlined.

The name of Governor Hanly may not be mentioned in the Democratic platform. There has been considerable speculation among politicians as to how he would be handled. Many predicted that he would be dealt with without gloves, but that is not very likely, as the masses did not seem to take kindly to the "skinning" John W. Kern gave the chief executive at the last midwinter banquet of the Democratic editors in his speech on public graft. Kern's speech was a feeler. If it had struck a popular chord the platform builders might have gone after the governor hammer and tongs, but it seems to be the judgment now of most of the leaders that more will be gained by letting him discontinue alone. Ignore him completely is the advice many are now giving, and it is probable they will have their way.

It is very likely that there will be a strong effort to have the Democratic state convention declare in favor of a high license system, as there is a growing sentiment in favor of it. The enactment of a law in Ohio providing for a $1,000 license fee has inspired many in Indiana with the belief that a similar measure can be obtained in this state. In the Second district the sentiment in favor of a high license system has become so general that there was much talk of inserting a plank in the platform on the subject last Tuesday at the congressional convention at Washington, but a few of the leaders headed it off with the argument that it was a matter for the state convention to consider. Many of the Democratic politicians are convinced that advocacy of a high license system would be a good campaign card, and they are favorable to it on that account. It is in advance of anything in the Republican platform, and for that reason is regarded as being very desirable as an issue. Among the masses, however, there is said to be a genuine sentiment favorable to the enactment of a law compelling saloon men to pay $1,000 for their licenses.

NO NEWS TO HIM

General Miles Knew About Bad Beef All the Time.

Kansas City, June 5.—General Nelson A. Miles, who is here on his way to Colorado, said: "The disclosures about beef and other packing-house products now being exploited are no news to me. I knew it seven years ago. I told what I knew then. Had the matter been taken up at that time thousands of lives would have been saved. The adulteration of food products is the colossal crime of the times. 'I believe that 3,000 United States soldiers lost their lives because of adulterate, impure, poisonous meat. There is no way of estimating the number of soldiers whose health was ruined by eating impure food. I know only of its harvest among the soldiers and can only guess how many lives it has cost the republic. 'I have a barrel of testimony on the subject in the way of affidavits that I collected when I made my investigation seven years ago. The investigating committee closed the case and refused to hear 2,000 witnesses whom I had ready. At that time I could have secured the testimony of 100,000 men that the canned beef sold to the army was impure, adulterated and unwholesome.

"In my investigation of 'embalmed' beef during the Spanish-American war, I found that poisons were being used to preserve meat. My first intimation of the practice came to me in reports from commanding officers to the effect that the rations were not wholesome and were making the soldiers sick. I ordered an investigation and learned from the reports brought to me that canned meats had been sold to the army that had been for months in the warehouses of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad and at the docks in Liverpool. "This meat had been relabeled and sold to the United States for soldiers' rations. I turned the reports over to the war department and a whitewash investigation was instituted and successfully carried out. The official report was that a 'colossal error' had been made. As a matter of fact, it was a colossal fraud, and the persons who perpetrated it and were interested in it should have been sent to the penitentiary."

LETTING LIGHT IN

The President Gives the Country a Nearer View of Packingtown.

MESSAGE TO CONGRESS

A Special Communication Concerning Conditions in the Chicago Stock Yards Deals With Facts.

Some Appalling Instances of the Packers' Lack of Regard For the Public Health.

Washington, June 5.—President Roosevelt has sent to congress a special message concerning conditions in the Chicago stockyards, transmitting with the same the report of James Bronson Reynolds and Commissioner Charles P. Neill, the special committee whom he appointed to investigate into the conditions in the stockyards of Chicago.

"This report," says the president, "is of a preliminary nature. I submit it now because it shows the urgent need of immediate action by the congress in the direction of providing a drastic and thoroughgoing inspection by the federal government of all stockyards and packing houses and of their products so far as the latter enter into interstate or foreign commerce. The conditions shown by even this short inspection to exist in the Chicago stockyards are revolting. It is imperatively necessary in the interest of decency that they should be radically changed. Under the existing law it is wholly impossible to secure satisfactory results.

"The report shows that the stockyards and packing houses are not kept even reasonably clean, and that the method of handling and preparing food products is uncleanly and dangerous to health. Under existing law the national government has no power to enforce inspection of the many forms of prepared meat food products that are daily going from the packing houses into interstate commerce. Owing to an inadequate appropriation the department of agriculture is not even able to place inspectors in all establishments desiring them. The present law prohibits the shipment of uninspected meat to foreign countries, but there is no provision forbidding the shipment of uninspected meats in interstate commerce, and thus the avenues of interstate commerce are left open to traffic in diseased or spoiled meats. If, as has been alleged on seemingly good authority, further evils exist, such as the improper use of chemicals and dyes, the government lacks power to remedy them. A law is needed which will enable the inspectors of the general government to inspect and supervise from the hoof to the can the preparation of the meat food product. The evil seems to be much less in the sale of dressed carcasses than in the sale of canned and other prepared products.

"I urge the immediate enactment into law of provisions which will enable the department of agriculture adequately to inspect the meat and meat food products entering into interstate commerce, and to supervise the methods of preparing the same, and to prescribe the sanitary conditions under which the work shall be performed. I therefore commend to your favorable consideration and urge the enactment of substantially the provisions known as senate amendment No. 29 to the act making appropriations for the department of agriculture for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, as passed by the senate, this amendment being commonly known as the Beveridge amendment."

WHAT THEY FOUND

Report of the President's Special Commissioners.

The report of J. B. Reynolds and Commissioner Neill to the president on conditions in the Chicago stockyards says that two and a half weeks were spent in the investigation in Chicago, during which "we went through the principal packing houses in the stockyards district, together with a few of the smaller ones. A day was spent by Mr. Reynolds in New York city in the investigation of its leading slaughter houses." The report says that in many of the rooms where water is used freely the floors are soaked and slimy and the dark and dingy rooms are naturally not kept suitably clean. An absence of cleanliness was found everywhere in the handling of meat being prepared for the various meat food products. The parts that are sent from the cooling room to these departments where various forms of meat products are prepared, are handled with no regard whatever for cleanliness. The workers climb over heaps of meat, select the pieces they wish and frequently throw them down upon the dirty floor beside their bench.

"In a word," the report adds, "we saw meat shoveled from filthy wooden floors, piled on tables rarely washed, pushed from room to room in rotten box-carts, in all of which processes it was in the way of gathering dirt, splinters and floor filth. It was always the reply that this meat would afterward be cooked, and that this sterilization would prevent any danger from its use. A very considerable portion of the meat so handled is sent out as smoked products and in the form of sausages, which are prepared to be eaten without being cooked.

"A particularly glaring instance of uncleanness was found in a room where the best grade of sausage was being prepared for export."

The report says that the radical defect in the inspection system is that it is dominated at present by law to passing on the healthfulness of animals at the time of killing, but that the meat that is used in sausage and the various forms of canned products and other prepared meat foods goes through many processes, in all of which there is possibility of contamination through unsanitary handling and further danger through the use of chemicals. During all these processes there is no government inspection, although these products when sent out bear a label stating they have been passed upon by government inspectors. The report arraigns the sanitary provisions in the buildings as abominable and says the men and women plunge their unwashed hands into the meat to be converted into food products. The report says the burden of protecting the cleanliness and wholesomeness of the products and the health of the workers and improving the conditions must fall upon the national government.

Department superintendents "seem to ignore all considerations except the account book," and proper care of the products and of the health and comfort of employees is impossible, and the consumer consequently suffers. Tuberculosis victims expectorate on the spongy wooden floors of the dark workrooms, from which falling scraps of meat are later shoveled up to be converted into food products. "Even the ordinary decencies of life are completely ignored," says the report in discussing the arrangements for men and women employees. The report says:

"The whole situation as we saw it in these huge establishments tends necessarily and inevitably to the moral degradation of thousands of workers, who are forced to spend their working hours under conditions that are entirely unnecessary and unpardonable and which are a constant menace not only to their own health, but to the health of those who use the food products prepared by them."

Packers Have a Word.

Chicago, June 5.—Eight of the big packing establishments in Chicago issued a joint statement last night replying to the charges made in the Neill-Reynolds report of their investigation of the packing plans and President Roosevelt's message to congress. In this statement the packers declare that their plants are kept clean; their methods of manufacture are sanitary; their products wholesome and that for years doctors, chemists, sanitarians and official investigators from practically every civilized nation on earth, who have made examination of the manner in which the meat-packing plants are conducted have been entirely satisfied in every instance with the conditions existing in this industry. Despite this fact the packers assert that they stand ready to adopt any practical suggestion in the line of improvement.

It Was Accepted.

Topeka, Kan., June 5.—Joseph Ralph Burton, senator from Kansas, under sentence to serve a term in jail and pay a cash fine for "grafting," has tendered his resignation to Governor Hoch, to take effect immediately. It was accepted and the governor appointed F. D. Coburn to succeed Burton.

Sentence Passed on Bertha Claiche.

New York, June 5.—Bertha Claiche, who pleaded guilty of manslaughter in the first degree for the killing of Emil Gerdron, has been sentenced by Judge Davis to not less than two years and two months nor more than five years imprisonment. The maximum penalty is twenty years.

They Couldn't Find Perry.

Washington, June 5.—The subpoena directed to Perry S. Heath, former first assistant postmaster general, to Noblesville, Ind., for his appearance here as a witness in the trial of Green and Doremus in connection with the postoffice frauds, was returned without being served.

GORMAN IS DEAD

Minority Leader of Senate Succumbs to Heart Disease.

Washington, June 5.—Senator Arthur P. Gorman of Maryland died at his residence in this city at 9:05 o'clock Monday morning, after an illness of many weeks. The end came suddenly, as the senator had been improving lately. Heart trouble was the cause.

Up to the moment of death Senator Gorman was conscious. His condition during the last week had improved so much that Sunday the family had hopes of shortly taking him to the country. He partook of some nourishment at 8 o'clock Monday morning, but at 9 o'clock he was seized with a heart attack and died in five minutes. At the bedside were Mrs. Gorman, Miss Ada Gorman, the senator's eldest daughter, and the nurse. When the attack came physicians were sent for, but the senator was dead before they arrived.

Senator Gorman's serious illness extended over a period of five months. He had not left his house since Jan. 16. He suffered, in addition to his heart affection, with more or less stomach trouble. Up to late Sunday night he was in the best of spirits, and chatted with various members of the family. As soon as he passed away word was sent to the senate, and that body upon convening immediately adjourned.

Senator Gorman leaves a widow and six children. The funeral will be held at Senator Gorman's late residence, No. 1432 K street, northwest, at 11 o'clock Thursday morning. The services at the house will be private and will be conducted by a clergyman of the Presbyterian faith, of which the late senator was an adherent. It was Senator Gorman's request that he should be buried in Oak Hill cemetery in Georgetown, just across Rock Creek from this city.

Doings in Congress.

Washington, June 5.—Monday being suspension day a number of bills both of local and national interest were passed with little or no debate. The house then as a mark of respect to the late senator from Maryland, adjourned for the day. During the passage of bills under suspension of the rule the message of the president relating to conditions in the packing houses was read and referred to the committee on agriculture. The senate adjourned immediately on receiving the announcement of Senator Gorman's death. No business whatever was transacted.
